

2025 Two-Day BSA/AML Compliance School

March 19-20 - West Des Moines

Presented by: Mark Dever, AAP, CAMS, Forvis Mazars

This school covers the issues and opportunities in the ever-expanding environment of the Bank Secrecy Act and reviews the entire realm of BSA from “A” to “Z”. From decades old Currency Transaction Reporting (CTR) and various record keeping requirements, to institutional risk assessment, customer due diligence (CDD), beneficial ownership expectations, and suspicious activity reporting, students from the novice to the tenured BSA professional will find the discussions and interactions to be of great value. This seminar assists financial institutions in meeting the annual training requirements imposed by the BSA regulations and network with other BSA compliance professionals.

About the Speaker

Mark Dever

Mark W. Dever, AAP, CAMS, is a Director at Forvis Mazars. Prior to joining the firm in 1996, Mr. Dever was Vice President and Manager of Cash Management Operations for a multi-billion-dollar regional bank holding company with several affiliates. He has extensive experience in many areas, including the automated clearing house (ACH), domestic wire transfer, affiliate bank post-acquisition conversions and consolidations, bank operation centralizations, and payment system risk. He teaches a variety of seminars including the ACH Processing and Compliance, and the Anti-Money Laundering and Bank Secrecy Act seminars. He has lectured at regional and national seminars, and at graduate schools of banking hosted by various bank associations and national industry groups. He has served on the faculty of both the OTS' Compliance I School, and the FDIC's Advanced Consumer Protection School. He has also taught undergraduate business and management classes in a community college setting.
